Dear Nandan Shiradakapple Nagaraja:

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that, after careful assessment of your application, you have been granted admission to the following program:

Master of Engineering
Civil Engineering

This is your official letter of acceptance. As an international student, you are required to obtain a Study Permit and a Quebec Certificate of Acceptance (CAQ). Please read carefully the enclosed "International Students Pre-Departure Guide" to determine the procedures.

The attached Offer of Admission gives information about the program to which you have been admitted, any conditions that apply to your admission, and further details regarding financial support. If you have any questions regarding your Offer of Admission, please feel free to contact us via email at graduate-admission@encs.concordia.ca. Please confirm your acceptance of this Offer of Admission in your Student Centre at www.myconcordia.ca by May 9, 2019.

To learn more about your program, please refer to the Gina Cody School of Engineering & Computer Science website at <http://www.concordia.ca/ginacody/programs>. Please contact the program assistant for course registration procedures. Contact information can be found in the following pages. You should arrive in Montreal and register for your courses by September 3, 2019.

Given your achievements, potential and academic intent, I believe that your academic interests will be well served by this program. I take this opportunity to welcome you to Concordia University and wish you every success in your studies.

Sincerely yours,

Mourad Debbabi, Ph.D.

Please note the PDF of your Offer of Admission is required to apply for your immigration visas: CAQ and Study Permit. We NO longer issue printed letters. Please note that this (Conditional or Final) Offer of Admission is sufficient when applying for the CAQ and Study Permit. In addition, Concordia University does not re-issue Offers of Admission once conditions (if any) have been fulfilled.

Confirmation & Online Registration:

Once you complete the process of confirming your admission, you may register online, for a maximum of two (2) courses per term.

For registration instructions, please refer to the following link for the Student Hub at: <http://www.concordia.ca/students/your-sis.html>.

Please ensure that you are registering for specific courses that are required for your program. Remember that core program courses are normally taken in the first term of admission.

If you are not able to join the program for FALL (September) 2019, or if you are no longer interested in taking a particular course(s), please ensure you drop the course(s) no later than the DROP/DNE deadline (SEPT 16, 2019). If you do not drop them by the DROP/DNE deadline, you will be charged for the course.

Please contact your program advisor, Ms. Jenny Drapeau (jenny.drapeau@concordia.ca), for course registration and program information by the confirmation date indicated above.

If you are unable to obtain your Study Permit in time for the start of the session that you have been admitted, you may request to defer your admission once within 1 year. To request a deferral, you may send an email to your Admissions Advisor (evelyn.coutts@concordia.ca) no later than your session commencement date, which is indicated in your Offer of Admission letter.

Please note all Study Permit applications (IMM 1294 and IMM 5709) must now include a Designated Learning Institution number (DLI #). The DLI for Concordia University is O19359011007.

Health Insurance and Immigration Procedures

An insurance policy, covering hospital expenses and medical fees, is compulsory for all international students registered at Concordia University and the premium is automatically charged to your student account. Please refer to the information regarding compulsory student health and accident insurance in the ISO Pre-Departure Guide at <http://www.concordia.ca/iso-pre-departure-guide>.

If you have any questions relating to immigration, housing or health insurance, please refer to the information provided in the ISO Pre-Departure Guide. You may also contact the International Students Office by email at iso@concordia.ca if you still have any questions after consulting the guide.

Residence

Are you a Graduate Student looking for a place to live in Montreal? Residence Life at Concordia University may have a home for you. Please contact the Residence Life Office concordia.ca/residence for information and availability.

Tuition and Fees

The Master's is a 2-year program. The tuition and other fees for an international student is approximately $7,000.00 per semester for 4 semesters for a total of approximately $28,000.00 for the 45-credit program. Continuation & other fees will be billed in each subsequent term of registration until you apply to graduate. The number of terms that the continuation & other fees are billed will depend on your progress in your program of study. All registered course credits above the 45 nominal credits in your program will be billed on a "per credit" basis in addition to, and concurrently with, other program fees that are billed. The fees quoted above are estimates as the University reserves the right to modify the published scale of fees without prior notice, at any time before the beginning of an academic term.

Living expenses for one year, including lodging and utilities, food, clothing, public transportation, books and supplies and miscellaneous expenses, can range from $14,000.00 to $16,000.00.

Please refer to Student Accounts website for details on the graduate Tuition & Fee and Financial Regulations at <http://www.concordia.ca/admissions/tuition-fees.html>. The University reserves the right to modify the published scale of tuition and other fees without prior notice, at any time before the beginning of an academic term.

Governmental Requirements:

All students are required to have a Permanent Code. To start the process for obtaining one, log on to your Self Service page, and click on the 'Code Permanent Data Form' in the Personal Information section. Please complete the on-line form and submit the required supporting document, if applicable. International students must submit the required supporting documentation only after they have received a study permit. For more information concerning the required documentation, please visit <http://www.concordia.ca/admissions/tuition-fees/permanent-code.html>.

As a new graduate student, you are required to complete the Academic Success and Integrity Module. This will become accessible 24 hours after you have accepted your Offer of Admission and paid your confirmation deposit.

Please consult the Graduate Student Guide to familiarize yourself with the steps a new graduate student needs to follow from acceptance to graduation. We also invite you to learn more about GradProSKILLS, a suite of skills development workshops designed to enrich the graduate experience and transition into a future career. Visit <http://concordia.ca/gradproskills> for more information.

Sincerely,
