

ELECTROVAGANZA-2K19 celebrated at JSS STU

Jss Science & Technology University , Mysuru (Formerly SJCE) department of Electrical and Electronics celebrated its annual Technical & Cultural Fest today at their campus which is scheduled till 4th of April 2019. In this 3 day annual event the Department organized various technical and cultural events.

Key Note speaker "Selection, Care and Maintenance of Batteries" was given out by Sri M K Narayan, Energy Consultant Bangalore. He emphasized on the Batteries which are storing energy for future use, newer technologies are developing products on longer battery life and quick chargeability. He also spoke on the negative effects of batteries on environment which has to be corrected immediately. He educated students on lithium ion batteries and its future uses on day to day usage of battery technology and energy consumption.

Another chief guest Sri H Srinivas , Assistant Director Program, AIR emphasized to the technical students on carrying the pride of our Kannada language across globe. He advised students to respect teachers and remember them throughout their lifetime.

Prof M H Dhananjaya, Adviser & Director (Technical), JSSMVP inaugurated the annual event and spoke on adapting to the latest technology changes and advised students on being updated in current trends and being creative in thinking and implementing.

During the inaugural event Dr M.S. Shashikala HOD of EEE department, Dr Prabhu Swamy Professor in Mechanical Department, faculty members and students of the department were present.

